Programming or Service Highlights:

- Expanded financial literacy series adding workshops on couponing, low cost family activities, saving for a rainy day through simple budgeting.
- Expanded scholarship workshops including developing personal statements, locating scholarships, requesting letters of recommendation.
- Held SSS fall conference ‘Your life is Calling: Will You Answer?’ (49 participants) and spring conference ‘Elevate Life’ (69 participants)
- Conducted Quest 2011 summer bridge program for underrepresented students.
- Days of Service included a variety of projects: decorating boxes for the food bank, creating literacy books for Head Start, making craft kits for Primary Children’s Hospital.
- Continued the tradition started last year with an evening celebration for graduates and their families the evening prior to graduation.

Assessment Highlights:

- 95% of participants (189/200) served in 2010-11 persisted to the next fall term or graduated and/or transferred (25 graduated and transferred, 10 graduated only, 6 transferred only, 148 enrolled fall 11).
- 96% (48/50) responded on the fall conference evaluation that they learned the importance of budgeting and the impact of student loans. 92% (46/50) responded that they will use a budget more wisely, determine wants vs. needs, and be more careful taking loans and making loan payments.
