

Looking for immediate new hire!

Do you love working with individuals to achieve their goals? Do you have a natural curiosity to develop new skills? We are currently looking to hire a home and community-based services (HCBS) direct service provider immediately to support a client in West Valley, Utah.

What would you do?

Each client we serve has an annual plan based on goals set by the individual. Your role would be to spend time each session helping her make meaningful progress towards each goal. Examples of her goals include finding and maintaining a part-time job, learning to cook basic meals independently, improving social skills in various settings, and completing daily chores (most are done independently). May also need to accompany client to doctor appointments from time to time. The client is 24 and loves scary movies. She also enjoys going to the mall and doing small acts of kindness for her mom and those she cares about.

Starting pay will be $11-14 based on experience. Will provide raise quickly based on performance and fit. Training is also paid. All work will be done at the home of the client or surrounding community. Hours likely to be between 15-25 per week with possibility of more. Shifts will finish by 6 pm any given day and start between 10 am and 1 pm. Saturday hours are also available, but not required. Ideal candidate can start training later this week.

Who are we looking for?

- You love people and know how to assist individuals in a variety of circumstances
- You find joy in helping and empowering others to reach their potential
- You are patient, compassionate, and creative

Additional Requirements

- Over 18 (over 20 is preferred since this client tends do better with individuals closer to her age)
- Must have your own care with a valid driver's license and car insurance
- Must be able to pass a background check
- Must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident
- CPR/First Aid certification is a plus (we'll certify you, if not!)

Who are we?

In 2012, Founder Harrison Rogers started Lexington out of his home, initially not expecting it to be a very large-scale project but with the simple goal of improving the quality of life for his sister with autism.

Since then, Lexington has expanded to multiple locations in Arizona providing more schools and programs to increase special needs education as well as In-Center and In-Home care.

Today, with over 160 In-Home and 90 In-Center members in Arizona, everything that Lexington offers is tailored to each individual's needs "So They Can" thrive and grow. In early 2021 Lexington Services expanded its offerings to serve families in Utah.

Please email resume to james@lexingtonservices.com. We will look to move quickly and set up interviews immediately. Feel free to check us out at www.lexingtonservices.com/utah.
