Service-Learning Professional Development Series (SLPDS) FALL 2017

This course introduces faculty to the integration of service in the academic curriculum. It is a professional development course for PT/FT faculty.

BENEFITS?

-Discover a high-impact practice (HIP)!
-Align your course with SLCC community and civic engagement efforts.
-Highlight service-learning/community engagement in your rank & tenure documents.
-Receive support in writing your Service-Learning Grant & Designation (SLG&D) RFP.*

- Each module takes approximately 1.5 to 3 hours to complete. The total course takes approximately 10-20 hours.
- Register through MySLCC/Employee/Register for Training/Office of Learning Advancement.
- Complete one or all modules. Modules open from Sep 25-Dec 1, 2017.

1) MODULE: SERVICE-LEARNING THEORY, RESEARCH, AND HIPS
2) MODULE: COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS AND A LITTLE MORE
3) MODULE: CRITICAL THINKING, REFLECTION , AND CIVIC RESPONSIBILITY
4) MODULE: CREATING A SERVICE-LEARNING GRANT & DESIGNATION PROPOSAL

adjunct faculty must take the course to be eligible to submit a SLG&D RFP*

Salt Lake Community College
Service-Learning

For questions contact:
Lucy Smith, Engaged Learning Coordinator
lucy.smith@slcc.edu
(801)957-4688
Redwood CT 254