

Federal Reserve Law Enforcement Officer

Based on years of experience $41,220 – $53,332

WHO WE ARE

Created in 1913, the Federal Reserve is the central banking system of the United States. Its duties today are to conduct the nation's monetary policy, supervise and regulate banking institutions, maintain the stability of the financial system.

The Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco is one of 12 regional Federal Reserve Banks which carry out much of the System's day-to-day operations. The Reserve Banks, also known as district banks, are nongovernmental organizations, set up similarly to private corporations, but operated in the public interest.

POLICE SERVICES

The mission of the Twelfth District Federal Reserve Police is to provide a safe and secure environment for its employees and tenants, while safeguarding the Federal Reserve Bank facilities, operations, and assets.

We are committed to these values:

- Conduct ourselves with high standards of honesty, integrity, and ethical behavior
- Utilize innovative solutions and current technology to enhance security
- Create a work environment in which we build an exceptional team through development, accountability, and support

BENEFITS

We provide exceptional medical, dental, and vision benefits that includes paid vacation. Saving for your future will be easy with our Thrift Plan (401k) and your pension plan is fully paid for by the Bank. We offer a flexible spending account to set aside predetermined tax free dollars to cover healthcare and child care expenses. We also offer commuter benefits and a transit subsidy. Investing in an exceptional workforce is a key goal of the Bank. We strongly encourage your professional development by offering various training programs and providing tuition assistance for undergraduate and graduate degrees.

Federal Reserve Law Enforcement Officer

Essential Job Functions:

As a Federal Reserve Law Enforcement Officer, upon successful completion of training and certification, you will operate as a Law Enforcement Officer pursuant to the authority given the Board of Governor's by Section 11 (q) of the Federal Reserve Act. In this critical capacity, you are charged with protecting and safeguarding the Bank's grounds, property, operations, employees, and other individuals on premises. You may be involved in making arrests and/or detaining individuals committing criminal acts on the premises, and providing testimony as required by law. Federal Reserve Law Enforcement Officers may also serve on our emergency response or emergency medical teams, or work special assignments such as Executive and Dignitary Protection, VIP Security, or provide professional armed escort for staff/valuables outside the facility as assigned by law enforcement management. Other duties may include, but are not limited to:

- Control entry of persons and vehicles entering beyond the Bank's public accessible areas, including parking structures, security court, or assigned valuables handling areas, and monitor surveillance equipment, intercoms, telephones, radios, and other specialized equipment.
- Operate law enforcement/emergency equipment when appropriate, such as issued firearms, emergency rescue, medical and firefighting equipment, post access consoles and portable radios.
- Patrol building and report any unusual situation or unauthorized individuals, and safeguard sensitive data and valuables through direct observation during regular patrol rounds.
- Respond to general alarms, fires, or other immediate threats to life and property to establish immediate law enforcement presence and secure building until emergency situations are resolved.

For more information about the position requirements and selection process. please visit www.frbsf.org/careers.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

The Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Our People proudly reflect the diversity and ideas of the communities we serve. The Bank's EEO policies prohibit workplace discrimination and harassment on the basis of an individual's race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, physical or mental disability, veteran status or genetic information. These policies apply to all aspects of our employment practices and programs, including but not limited to hiring, termination, promotion, transfer, compensation, benefits, educational assistance, working conditions, and Bank-sponsored training and recreational programs.

Interested candidates should submit their resumes with the following event code:
Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco Law Enforcement Outreach 2015