

Disability
Awareness Week

Disability and the Arts

September 17 - 20, 2018

Disability
Awareness Week

Disability and the Arts

September 17 - 20, 2018

Disability
Awareness Week

Disability and the Arts

September 17 - 20, 2018

Monday, September 17

*“Autism in Love”
Sundance Documentary*

12 p.m.

Taylorville Redwood Campus,
Student Event Center

Tuesday, September 18

Assistive Technology Fair

11:30 a.m. - 1 p.m.

South City Campus, Room 1-030

Wednesday, September 19

*Keynote “Deaf and Dance”
Stephanie Mathis*

Executive Director of the Segó Lily Center

12 - 1 p.m.

Taylorville Redwood Campus,
Student Event Center

Many people are surprised to learn that the Deaf community enjoys dance as an outlet. As a part of Disability Awareness Week, Stephanie Mathis, who is Deaf, will discuss her experience with dance and how being Deaf has not limited her from participating in the performing arts.

Disability Resource Center
Universal Access Committee
Health and Lifetime Activities
Office for Diversity and Multicultural Affairs

To request ADA accommodations for any of the Disability Awareness Week events, contact the DRC at 801-957-4659. AAJ/EO Information | 09.24.2018

Thursday, September 20

*Artist Talk - Cara Jean Means
GRIP: Conversational Portraits on Mental Health*

12 p.m.

South City Campus, Room 1-106

Artist Cara Jean Means discusses her painting series GRIP: Conversational Portraits on Mental Health, which will be on display in the George S. and Dolores Dore Eccles Gallery from August 16-September 26.

“Whether you have mental illness or simply advocate for those who do, this series will shift your conversational habits toward recognition, healthy coping, and revolutionizing medical care. This series encourages people to engage in a way that leaves them feeling empowered and willing to take responsibility for changing the way we discuss and treat mental illness.”

Disability Awareness Week.

Disability and the Arts.

September 17-20, 2018

Monday, September 17.

“Autism in Love” Sundance Film Festival Documentary.

12 p.m. Taylorsville Redwood Campus, Student Event Center.

Reader’s note: image of a heart made up of different colors with the caption “Autism in Love.” End reader’s note.

Tuesday, September 18.

Assistive Technology Fair.

11:30 a.m. – 1 p.m. South City Campus, Room 1-030.

Reader’s note: image of people riding three wheeled bicycles. End reader’s note.

Disability Awareness Week.

Disability and the Arts.

September 17-20, 2018

Wednesday, September 19.

Keynote “Deaf and Dance.” Stephanie Mathis. Executive Director of the Segoe Lily Center.

12 – 1 p.m. Taylorsville Redwood Campus, Student Event Center.

Reader’s note: image of a woman smiling. End reader’s note.

Many people are surprised to learn that the Deaf community enjoys dance as an outlet. As a part of Disability Awareness Week, Stephanie Mathis, who is Deaf, will discuss her experience with dance and how being Deaf has not limited her from participating in the performing arts.

Thursday, September 20.

Artist Talk-Cara Jean Means. GRIP: Conversational Portraits on Mental Health.

12 p.m. South City Campus, Room 1-106.

Reader's note: image of a woman's face with hands stretching her face to make her smile. End reader's note.

Artist Cara Jean Means discusses her painting series GRIP: Conversational Portraits on Mental Health, which will be on display in the George S. and Dolores Dore Eccles Gallery from August 16-September 26.

"Whether you have mental illness or simply advocate for those who do, this series will shift your conversational habits toward recognition, healthy coping, and revolutionizing medical care. This series encourages people to engage in a way that leaves them feeling empowered and willing to take responsibility for changing the way we discuss and treat mental illness."

Disability Resource Center.

Universal Access Committee.

Health and Lifetime Activities.

Office for Diversity and Multicultural Affairs.

SLCCSA SLCC student Association.

Community Writing Center.

Salt Lake Community College.

To request ADA accommodations for any of the Disability Awareness Week events, contact the DRC at 801-957-4659.

AA/EO institution | REV 08.24.2018