

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

NOTICE

Programs and Services: Salt Lake Community College complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), as amended, by making accessible to individuals with disabilities the services, programs, and activities the College offers.

Employment: The College complies with the ADA by providing employment opportunities to qualified individuals with disabilities.

Prohibitions: It is unlawful to discriminate against a qualified individual with a disability. No qualified individual with a disability shall, by reason of such disability, be excluded from participation in College programs or be subjected to discrimination.

Contact for Assistance: Any person with a disability may contact the College ADA Complaint Officer or the Human Resources Office (HR). For students with a disability, please contact the Disability Resource Center (DRC). For disability or accommodation related complaints, contact the ADA Complaint Officer.
