WASHINGTON, DC – The National Association of Veterans Program Administrators (NAVPA) announced the availability of eight scholarships to students studying at NAVPA member institutions. The scholarships, in the amount of $500 each, are intended to provide financial assistance to veterans, service members, and their dependents.

Eligibility criteria and an online application form may be found at NAVPA's website, www.navpa.org. The deadline to apply is January 8, 2016. A direct link to the scholarship application is available here: <http://goo.gl/oQcm3c>.

About NAVPA

The National Association of Veterans' Program Administrators (NAVPA) is an organization of nearly 400 post-secondary educational institutions and individuals who are involved or interested in the operation of veterans' affairs programs and/or the delivery of educational services to veterans. NAVPA is governed by a Board of Directors elected annually. The purpose of NAVPA is to promote professional competency and efficiency through an association of members and others associated with, and involved in, veterans' educational programs; to promote the development, improvement and extension of opportunities to any veteran or dependent of a veteran for his or her personal growth and development to its fullest potential. More information about NAVPA may be found at www.navpa.org.
