

SLCC Writing Across the College 2015-2016 Program Highlights

Developed webinars for creating Faculty Professional Portfolios.

August

Viewed over 900 times. With ePortfolio, provided six workshops and multiple individual consultations during the academic year.

Analyzed AAS programs of study to find ways to increase opportunities for written communication instruction. Made recommendations to program administration.

October

Collaborated with the Student Writing Center to support students in their final projects during the semi-annual Long Day Against Procrastination (in December and May).

December

Created the SLCC Style Guide with the support of Institutional Marketing and Communications.

Get the "Write" Style:
Common Editing Concerns at SLCC

February

Created the SLCC Open Collection of Student Writing (OCSW). Will launch in August 2016.

April

July

September

To improve student and faculty writing expectations, articulated composition course outcomes for audiences outside the English department (endorsed by English dept.).

November

Offered grammar and style workshops to more than 100 SLCC staff, faculty and administrators over the course of the academic year.

January

Assessed the sustainability of learning communities that include composition courses. Passed English department statement to support sustainable LCs. Collaborated with multiple departments on pilot 2016-2017 WPC Common Intellectual Experience.

March

With the endorsement of the SLCC Faculty and Student Senates, established the document, "Writing Assignments: What Students and Faculty Should Expect."

May

In collaboration with General Education and ePortfolio, revised rubrics and process for annual Gen Ed assessment of Written Communication.

June